Train a mentor to support a child at high-risk of street life.

This Christmas I have decided to gift, in your name, the training of a Guatemalan volunteer mentor to help support and care for a child at risk. The gift also includes money to take the child on a special activity after three months in the programme to celebrate good behaviour, good choices and good grades in school.

The Street Kids Direct project in Guatemala works with high-risk children and their families and provides programmes to keep the children from taking to the streets. You can find out more by going to their website: streetkidsdirect.org.uk
