

RADIO CHRISTMAS TERMS & CONDITIONS 2023

Please read through the following terms and conditions for presenting a show on Radio Christmas and familiarise yourself with our ethos and vision. We have produced in line with our Ofcom licence requirements and standards code from 2022.

1. ETHOS. We believe that there are some key words that express the 'ethos' of the radio station:
  - I. Festive. The feel of the programmes must be festive and the nearer we get to Christmas the more festive the programmes and music will have to be.
  - II. Christian. We are not saying that everyone involved must be a Christian or go to church! We think that our core values are Christian and therefore we do expect a level of commitment to the way we conduct ourselves, use of language, type of music we play and the way we speak about people on the programmes and how we treat people in the studio.
  - III. Quality. All aspects of the radio station must be of the highest possible quality.
  - IV. Community. This is about us, as a community, caring for each other and those around us. We want to give space to anyone in our community to come and tell their story. We want people to feel included and part of all we do and who we are locally.
  - V. Charity. Even though we are raising money for street kids the station will be able to promote other charities, especially local ones or local people who have an interest in a charity. Let's INCLUDE!
  - VI. Fun. We must have fun in all we do. We would rather do less but do it well and enjoy it rather than do more and fall out with each other, get stressed and not enjoy the experience.

2. TERMS & CONDITIONS

- I. Presenters and News Readers must display reasonable skill in presenting a show or reading the news bulletins.
- II. Voting, competitions and all such schemes must be dealt with fairly and consistently.
- III. No offensive language is allowed at any time and all presenters must remain in control of their own personal prejudices and speak of all people in a way that is constructive, encouraging and does not demean them on the basis of their sex, ethnicity or religion.
- IV. You must comply with the Standard Code of Ofcom, which can be read at: <http://licensing.ofcom.org.uk/binaries/radio/rsls/srsl.pdf>
- V. By participating in the radio broadcast you give us full permission to record your show and make that available to the public for listen again and download for a limited time. By law we have to keep a digital copy of our output so that Ofcom inspectors can monitor shows should they require up to two years after broadcast.
- VI. By participating in the radio broadcast you might be photographed for publicity and so unless you inform us in writing that you do not wish to be photographed we will understand you give us full permission for the use of the photos for our website or for other publicity materials.
- VII. All young people under the age of 16 need to ask a parent or appropriate adult to sign a Parental Permission Form (available from the website) that will enable them to be at the radio studios. All children under the age of 12 needs to be accompanied by a parent or appropriate adult. No young person under 16 volunteering at the studios will be permitted to leave the site without permission of their parents.
